

THIRTIETH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, July 19.

Senate.—Remonstrances were presented against the stoppage of the Sunday mail, which were referred.

A joint resolution to give to the State of Missouri, the cannon captured by Col. Doniphan was passed.

A resolution compensating Col. Fremont was adopted.

Mr. Clayton explained his remarks of yesterday. They were his own individual views, and not those of the special committee.

The amendment striking out the Naval Appropriation bill.

The appropriations for the erection of Marine Hospitals was rejected.

Mr. Niles opposed a proposition to advance money to the contractors for carrying the mail on the steamers.

The Senate then went into Executive session, after which it adjourned.

House of Representatives.—The Speaker announced the reports of committees to be in order.

In committee of the whole, the bill extending pensions to the widows of revolutionary soldiers, was passed.

A joint resolution, establishing a line of Mail Steamers to the Pacific, was debated, and finally laid on the table.

A sad accident occurred in another part of our county on Saturday last. Mr. George Hachett with his wife and son, were returning in a two horse wagon from Mercedosa, where he had attended a religious meeting. When near Chambersburg the horses took fright, ran, overturned the wagon, killed Mrs. Hachett instantly, injured Mr. Hachett mortally, as is supposed, and the boy to some degree.

Mr. Hachett was an old resident of our country and a highly respectable man—our informant states that "much praise is due to Capt. Powell and B. Johnson and families for prompt and efficient assistance, every thing which humanity could dictate was promptly done for the unfortunate sufferers."—[Ill. Pike Co. Sentinel, 19th inst.

July 18th, 1848.

Messrs. Editors: I feel it my duty, in justice to myself, to the delegation from Buffalo township and to Mr. Arthur, to correct a report that is in circulation respecting the nomination of that gentleman for Assessor, by the democratic county convention at Bowling Green, that his circumstances were exaggerated or falsely stated, that he had, among other calamities, a family of eleven children; the report is unfounded, not having been so stated by myself or any one of the delegation in my hearing. That we urged the claims of Mr. Arthur we do not deny, because we believed he would fill the office with satisfaction to the people, but not from any disregard for another, for there are no men that I esteem more highly than those other aspirants with whom I am acquainted. But believing that such offices should be given to the more unfortunate, when they are capable of discharging the duties of them, and believing that no candidate could be successful unless he was equally or more unfortunate than the opposing candidate. In the person of Mr. Arthur we believed we had found that man, hence we urged his claims without prevarication or exaggeration, which can be attested by many who were present and personally acquainted with Mr. Arthur and his misfortunes. J. C. ALLISON.

NEW MERCANTILE FIRM.

WM. LUCE & CO.

RESPECTFULLY announce to their friends and the public, that they have purchased the new and elegant stock of Goods recently brought to this market by McKay & Co., to which they invite the attention of dealers.

It is their design to make all necessary additions, from time to time, so as to keep constantly on hand a complete stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware, Hardware, &c. to suit all classes of purchasers. Their Goods are of the best quality and latest style; and their prices shall be such as to insure satisfaction, for they have determined to be not undersold by any establishment north of St. Louis. With this determination, they flatter themselves they will be able to make it to the interest of purchasers to give them a share of their patronage. Call and examine for yourselves, "for it is no trouble to them to show goods." Their store is in the house formerly occupied by McKay & Co., the lower door of Draper's row, on Water Street, where they would be happy to receive calls if it is only to examine their goods.

All kinds of country produce at liberal prices will be taken in exchange for goods.

Respectfully, WM. LUCE & CO.

Louisiana, Mo. June 12th, 1848.

N. B. To farmers and others, they would say they have a large and commodious warehouse where they will carefully receive and forward freight on the most reasonable terms.

To the People of Pike County.

At Belleville, Ill., atown 13 miles from St. Louis, 400 packages of Dr. STORM'S CANDY were sold in three months; and the agent received the following certificate from a large number of persons who used it:—

Belleville St. Clair Co. March, 14, 1847.

We the undersigned, citizens of Belleville, St. Clair County, Ill., having used the medicine known as Dr. Storm's Scotch Cough Candy, prepared by H. Wade, of St. Louis, Mo., do cheerfully testify to its efficacy as a remedy for Diseases of the Breast and Lungs, and we recommend it to the public as a safe and agreeable compound.

C. J. HOUTS, Methodist Minister, L. B. CABAUNE, Merchant, DAVID McCOY, " O. J. RAPIER, " W. S. FLEMING, Ed. Belleville Democrat, And many others too numerous to mention

We have thought it unnecessary to offer certificates from individuals in all cases, as purchasers are unable to inform themselves of the actual existence of most of the signers. The following, however, is from a well known citizen of St. Louis, mo.; residence No. 210 main street two dollars below Cherry:—

Ma. WADE.—Dear Sir: It affords me pleasure to offer my testimony to the efficacy of the article known as Dr. Storm's Scotch Cough Candy. And in doing so, I am actuated by a desire to benefit others who may be suffering. My wife was laboring under a severe cough for a long time, which threatened serious injury. After having tried many other remedies to no purpose, she used a few packages of Storm's Cough Candy, purchased from our neighbors, Messrs. Snow & Quirk, and in a very short time she was entirely relieved, and now enjoys good health. My servant was also afflicted with a severe breast complaint, and she experienced almost immediate relief from the use of this truly valuable remedy

Respectfully, E. EVANS, No. 210 Main Street.

St. Louis, May 4, 1847.

The action of Dr. Storm's Scotch Cough Candy differs very materially from any other compound ever invented. It not only allays Bronchial Irritation, but operating as a very mild purge, it keeps the stomach and bowels in a healthy condition, leaving the patient an appetite which few other Cough Mixtures could impart. We have no disposition to injure the inventor of any particular medicine, but in justice to the world, we will give it as our honest opinion, formed by the observations of eleven years in the school of medicine, that large and frequent draughts of nauseous liquid—Compounds taken into the stomach from time to time—must have a tendency to destroy the healthy tone of that vital organ of the human system.

No such objection can be urged against the use of this valuable Medicated Candy, for Sugar is agreeable both to the palate and stomach, and we honestly believe that this preparation will do all that medicine can do towards the relief of persons suffering with Colds, Coughs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Bleeding of the Lungs, Pain in the Side and Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness, and all other symptoms of Consumption.

Orders from the Country, or applications for Agency, directed to Messrs. J. H. BARNARD & BRO., General Agents, No. 140 Main street, St. Louis, Mo., will meet with prompt attention.

For sale by Druggists generally. It may also be obtained of any respectable country merchant in the South or West.

To avoid counterfeits, our readers would do well to inquire for Dr. STORM'S SCOTCH COUGH CANDY, prepared by Hamilton Wade, St. Louis, whose written signature is on the wrapper.

A liberal deduction made to country dealers. march 13th, 1848. 49—6m.
